Mostly guitar bands like Oasis, U2 or White Stripes. I love music and I am constantly in my headphones.

- Your favourite movie?

I love Gangster movies „Casino“ or „The Godfather“. Also, rather randomly, „Jerry Maguire“.

- Your favourite city / place in the world, you have visited so far?

Definitely Japan, it's so different to home.

- Do you have any hidden talents, we don't know about?

I am a wicked musician! Soon to be a Rockstar! Ha! Ha! :-)

- What's the most treasured moment in your life, so far?

Show wise, it would be dancing lead in Liverpool for the first time!

About your family...

- Please tell us something about your parents - what do they do for their living? Do they dance as well?

Dad is retired, Mum works in a nursing home. Mum still attends dancing comps because she loves it.

- Do you have any brothers or sisters? How old are they? Do they dance, too? What do they do for their living?

I have 5 Brothers but none dance. I am second youngest.

- Is it hard for you, to be apart from your family for such a long time while touring?

Yes, I miss my family but we are all great friends which helps us through.

- What do your family think of your job as a Show Dancer? Are they proud of you? How often do they visit you on tour and watch you dancing the Show?

They are very proud. They all come to watch in Liverpool.

- There are a few relationships within the troupe – do you have a girlfriend?

No. I've taken a vow of chastity. (just joking :-))

About your beginnings...

- Why did you start Irish Dancing and when? Who taught you during all the time?

I was six, My cousins danced and my auntie took me along.

- How old have you been at your first competition?

First major at 10.

- Did you attend many championships as a competition dancer? Have you won?

Yes, I won most major competitions once or twice.

- What was it like to do competitions?

Okay, they were fun for meeting friends, but also quite stressful.

- What do you like more – Show Dancing or doing competitions? Why?

Show dancing, you get more audience reaction and we get paid!!!! :-)

- What is – in your opinion – the most important difference between Show dancing and competitions?

The pay!! Ha, ha!!

No, it's the people we work with and the places we see that make me love the show more.

- Did you have any major injuries because of Irish Dancing?

No, touch wood.

- Did you learn other kinds of dance?

No, fraid not.

Becoming a Show Dancer...

- Have you been with another Irish Dance Show, before you joined LotD?

No.

- Why did you choose LotD?

It's the best!! My favourite anyway.

Year 2000. I was 19.

- Have you been called directly to T1 or did you have some training before?

Direct to T1.

- Did you know some of the other troupe members before you joined?

Not many.

- Please describe the feeling, to join an already existing troupe. Were you nervous or afraid not to meet the requirements?

It's very scary, like 1st day at school.

- Please describe your first day with your new troupe?

I was scared but we had a few drinks and I realised it was gonna be great fun.

- What was the hardest part to learn?

Getting used to travelling and being away from family.

- How much time did you get to learn your routines, until you first danced on stage with LotD? What was the first part you were allowed to dance? When was it?

I knew most routines when I arrived, but for a few days I was the towel boy!!!

Getting the Leading Part...

- Did you have to do auditions for your leading part, or did it just happen?

Yes, many auditions till I was ready.

- Was it your idea of doing the lead or have you been suggested by somebody?

Senior dancers like Daire Nolan and Steven Brunning suggested it to me.

- When did you start practising the leading part and who taught you to dance the Dark Lord? How long did it take, to learn the leading part?

Tom Cunningham and Steve Brunning taught me. It took ages to get it decent.

- What was the hardest part to learn as a lead dancer?

The acting and stage confidence.

- When and where did you first stepped on stage as Morrighan / Saoirse / Lord / Dark Lord?

Italy, Feb 04.

Once a week :-)

...just joking!

nowadays & in the future...

- Who do you most admire in the world of Irish Dancing and why?

Tom Cunningham, he is awesome and such a good guy, and Geoff Hayes, Mark Mullholland and Owen MacAuley as well.

- What do the dancers do, when they get a long tour-break? Staying at home or doing another job - maybe dancing in one of the other shows or joining another LotD-Troupe in the meanwhile?

Just relax and put the feet up.

- How long do you plan to stay with LotD? Hopefully a long time!

As long as I love it.

- What are your (dancing and non-dancing) plans for your future?

Take my teachers exam.

...Then become a multi millionaire by winner the Lotto :-)

- Is there something you want to tell your fans, who are visiting www.lordofthedance.at and <http://biography.lordofthedance.at> ?

Don't be a fool.

Stay in school.

Don't be a quack.

Stay off crack.

Play for the Team.

FOLLOW YOUR DREAM!!!!
